

TEENS & TECHNOLOGY

Virtual Conference

Wednesday, Sept. 30, 2020 | 6 – 8 p.m.

Click here to register.

This virtual event is open to the community and will focus on educating teens, parents, professionals, educators and others who work with youth about healthy technology habits, how to be safe and smart, and the impacts of COVID on children. *Teens are encouraged to attend.

Agenda

6 – 6:05 p.m.	Welcome Curtis Smith, Corporate Director of Community Engagement, Parkview Heath	7 – 7:20 p.m.	Prevention and Treatment for Adolescents and Substance Use Carolyn Greer, MD, MS, FACOG, FASAM, Bowen Recovery Center
6:05 – 6:25 p.m.	Focusing on Healthy Digital Habits in Families and Children Brandon McDaniel, PhD Parkview Research Center	7:20 – 7:40 p.m.	Beyond the Disease: How the COVID Pandemic has Impacted Our Children's Health and Development Tony GiaQuinta, MD PPG – Pediatrics
6:25 – 6:45 p.m.	How Predators Use Technology to Groom Children Cathie Bledsoe, Youth Educator for Indiana's Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force	7:40 – 8 p.m.	Mental Health Panel – Q&amp;A
6:45 – 7 p.m.	Tech Panel – Q&amp;A	8 p.m.	Closing Remarks Curtis Smith
Contact Lauren Reining at 260-266-7771 with questions.

Contact Lauren Reining at 260-266-7771 with questions.